Deuteronomy

Session 5 - The Grace of Covenant

Check In

God is glad to connect with you. He wants to hear about how you are doing. Take a moment to notice your primary emotion of the day as a way to help yourself be fully present. Consider whether you are primarily sad, angry, scared, happy, tender, etc. Share with God that emotion. Write out: What are you thankful for? Ask him, "How does he feel about you?"

Reflect

Spend some time with the biblical texts and the resources below. Do so until something in particular pops out to you, you do not need to get through everything. Talk with God about what encourages, challenges, or confuses you.

Read Deuteronomy 4:44-5:30

Moses begins his second address, which will cover his explanation of the Torah following the 10 Words/Decalogue. The full address will last until the end of chapter 26 and covers collections of legal sayings for each of the 10 Words. The intro provides historical context, a restating of the 10 Words for a new generation, and a clear reminder that "keeping Torah" comes from a heart of devotion to the Lord (see 5:26-30). Moses wants the people to realize that God is not doing this with people in the past, but with them in the present. It will take a present love and loyalty towards God to live out being his covenant people. Moses wants the next 21 chapters to teach them how to live in relationship with God by trusting his lens for seeing the world as it truly is. These collections of legal sayings are God's revelation to help them know holiness and brokenness when they see it.

Relationship - What stands out to you about being in relationship with God and our stewardship as his covenant people?

Revelation - What do you notice about the reality of God's world and ways?

Character - What do you learn about God as holy, and how, as his covenant people, we are invited to be like him?

Be quiet for 3 minutes. What do you sense God is saying to you? How will you pursue being faithful with that this week? The community is blessed when we share out of our life experience, gifting, time with God, and reflection on scripture. We believe everyone contributes to teaching. What insight, question, or experience do you want to share with us?

Steps for Church Families of Prayerful Love:

- What are you thankful for? What challenges are happening in your life, family and community?
- What did you like/not like about the Scripture?
- What did you learn about God and people from the Scripture?
- What do you sense God inviting you to live out with him this week?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this?
- Ask God: How can I bless (body, labor, emotions, social, spiritual) those people who need this?
