Session 18 - Loyalty: the Cost & the Reward

Check-In

God is glad to connect with you. He wants to hear about how you are doing. Take a moment to notice your primary emotion of the day to help yourself be fully present. Consider whether you are primarily sad, angry, scared, happy, tender, etc. Share with God that emotion. Write out: What are you thankful about? Ask him, "How does he feel about you?"

Reflect

Spend some time with the biblical texts and the resources below. Do so until something pops out to you; feel free to stop when the Lord prompts you this way. Talk with God about what encourages, challenges, or confuses you.

Read Matthew 10:34-11:1

Matthew concludes Jesus' second discourse with his teachings on the cost of loyalty to God in the present and its eventual reward in the future. Stepping out as an agent of Kingdom Heseed will challenge our most dearly held allegiances. Those closest to us will likely not understand, and Jesus encourages his disciples (and us) to anticipate this. However, he paints a future hope for which the sacrifices of loyalty will be rewarded with an open arms welcome by him and his Father. The discourse concludes with a powerful reality that Jesus himself co-labored in the same work with the disciples, just as he co-labored with us today.

Pay attention to these recurring themes in The Gospel of Matthew:

Immanuel, God With Us - What is it like to be with Jesus?

Teaching, as revelation - What does Jesus' teaching reveal about reality? God? People? The world? The enemy?

The Church - What do you learn about the true Israel and the community of people shaped by life with Jesus?

Be quiet for 3 minutes. What do you sense God is saying to you? How will you pursue being faithful with that this week? The community is blessed when we share out of our life experiences, gifts, time with God, and reflect on scripture. Everyone contributes to teaching. What insight, question, or experience do you want to share?

Steps for Church Families of Prayerful Love:

- What are you thankful for? What challenges are happening in your life, family, and community?
- What did you like/not like about the Scripture?
- What did you learn about God and people from the Scripture?
- What do you think God is inviting you to live with him this week?
- Who do you know who needs to hear this?
- Ask God: How can I bless (body, labor, emotions, social, spiritual) those people who need this?
